NO FAILU[illegible]

BISHOP QUAYLE POINTS WO[illegible] POWER OF CHURCH

MADE STRONGER BY WAR

Declares Bolshevism Will Be Cured Only Through Christ's Teaching and Not by Food.

That all the talk about the church having failed in its mission and that it was no longer the great power in the world was vehemently denied by Bishop William A. Quayle of the Methodist church who spoke at the First M. E. Church last night on the subject, "My Church." A capacity house heard the Bishop discuss the biggest question that is interesting the people of the world, the power of the church of God.

Said Bishop Quayle, "we heard at the beginning of the war that the church had failed. People in their uneasiness and with their befogged minds were ready to accept it as a truth, but let us see who has failed. It is we who have failed. The church is still going on, greater and more powerful than ever.

"They told us that when the boys came home from the war they would not take to the things they formerly liked—there would have to be a new order of things, but I find that the boys are anxious to get back into citizens clothes, to do the things they liked to do before they went to war, to go to church and hear the preacher and the choir just liked they used to. The church is going on and ahead with a greater program for humanity's relief and salvation than ever before in the history of the world. It has not failed in a single thing.

"There are plenty who would like to see it fail. They are the people who are [illegible] of the time when they will be called to account. The people who are living in the church and supporting its work and living good lives will tell you the church has not failed.

"What has the Protestant church done? Here is the biggest thing in recent years—and it's history I'm telling. It has made this country to be without the saloon and has caused prohibition to be adopted throughout the land. I say the Protestant church did it. The labor unions and Mr. Gompers did not do it—they voted against it. The Roman Catholic church did not do it for they were opposed to it. Don't be afraid of the church failing. You may fail, but the church of God will never fail.

"We hear of the fearful menace of Bolshevism that is going to take the world and that bread is its cure. Don't you believe it. The carnival of murder of hellishness and terror that is spreading over Europe cannot be done away with by such means. The human stomach does not cause men to do such things. It is the mind and heart and these must be the point of attack. [illegible]re is just one thing that will rid world of this curse and that is Protestant church of God. I am denying the beneficial effects of [illegible] food but the minds and hearts of these Bolsheviki must be turned to see the light as Christ has taught.

"The church is engaged in the most stupendous project it has ever undertaken and is girding the globe in its effort to make real the things it teaches and it is worthy of the support of men and women everywhere. To have a part in it is to have a part in making the world a real democracy in its fullest sense."

HUNDREDS AT KITE FLYING

Boy Scout Events Yesterday Provided Novel Form of Amusement—The Grown-Ups Outnumbered Boys.

The kite flying contest at the Normal field yesterday afternoon by the Boy Scouts and their boy friends drew several hundred youngsters and as many more grown folks. The former came with kites of all descriptions, from the old-fashioned newspaper and paste affair to box kites and airplane kites. The grown-ups came to see if kite flying was as much sport as it was when they were kids, and from the remarks overheard left no doubt that it was even more so, the older men staying until the last kite had been taken down and the prizes awarded. It was an afternoon of great sport despite the number of kite "casualties" from tangled lines when some enthusiastic younster dared to get his flier "out of sight."

The contests included events for home-made kites, the largest and the smallest kite, the most comical kite, box kites, star kites, etc. The distance contest brought out plenty of rivalry and much skill, as did also the altitude record event. Sending messages and parachute drops were interesting events, too.

The fun came in the athletic events when each contestant was required to fly his kite while taking part in the rolling races, one-legged roce, three-legged race, relay races and other events.

The following boys won prizes donated by the Kessler Hardware store: Townsend Godsey, Edwards, Laverne Robey, Eckart, Garten, Jas. Shearer, Carlos Yehle, Don Herndon, Sherman McLoud, Ferritor.

Judges were: G. H. Westfall, I. B. Williams and Dale Peery of St. Joseph. The contest was planned and carried out by Assistant Scoutmaster Frank Green of Troop I.

Jefferson City, March 24.—The long list of first rank honors taken by Missouri from the other forty-seven states of the union, as based on the state-federal statistics for 1918, has been compiled by Jewell Mayes, secretary of of the state board of agriculture, together with the other rankings to which the state is entitled by reason of her marvelous and diversified production. Mr. Mayes adds that "the standing of Missouri was not nearly so high in 1918 on our main crops as it was for 1917 and usual years because of the unprecedented hot winds that lapped over into Missouri from Kansas and Oklahoma," but the list will be found useful to speech-makers, real estate dealers and all who are entertaining visitors from other states given to boasting.

HEARING BOMB CASE

PRELIMINARY TRIAL OF DAVE BLEDSOE THIS AFTERNOON

DAMAGING EVIDENCE

Constable Henderson Tells of Conversation in Which Bledsoe Offered to Plead Guilty.

The preliminary hearing of Dave Bledsoe, charged with placing a bomb in a bundle of fodder, the bomb exploding and injuring Grant Richards, his brother-in-law, is in progresss before Justice W. L. Johnson in the circuit court room this afternoon. Richards was the first witness examined and told of Mrs. Bledsoe coming to his home the day before the January term of court to ask him what could be done to "stop the thing." He said she told him she did not care for herself or her husband, but that it was on account of the children that she would like to get "the thing" stopped.

Constable Bert Henderson told of a visit to the Bledsoe home in company with Prosecutor McCaffrey and Joe Thompson following the bomb explosion. The visit, he said Prosecutor McCaffrey told him, was for the purpose of hearing Bledsoe's confession. Arriving at the home he said that Bledsoe told the prosecutor that he was ready to plead guilty to the crime if he might be assured of not being prosecuted. This, Henderson said, McCaffrey told him he was unable to do and would promise nothing. Henderson said that Bledsoe did not admit he was guilty, but that he said he would plead guilty to escape being prosecuted. A number of other witnesses are being examined and the preliminary trial may not be concluded until late this afternoon.

Prosecutor McCaffrey is being assisted by W. A. Blagg and G. R. Ellison. Bledsoe is being represented by Cook & Cummins.

DR. A. B. ALLEN DEAD

WELL KNOWN PHYSICIAN PASSES AWAY AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

HEART TROUBLE, CAUSE

Had Practised in Maryville and Nodaway County 42 Years—Was Surgeon for Wabash Railroad.

Dr. Austin Beech Allen, a prominent physician of Nodaway county, died at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Allen home, 227 West First street. Dr. Allen's death was not unexpected, as he had been in a precarious state since Friday night when he took a sudden relapse from a slight illness which had kept him at home for a couple of days previous to that. His sickness and death was due to an organic heart trouble which caused him to give up his medical practice two years ago and spend a winter in California. This benefitted him considerably and he resumed his practice last year.

No arrangements are yet made for the funeral.

Dr. Allen was born February 12, 1850, in Warren county, Ill. He decided early in life to become a medical practioner, and set to work diligently to prepare himself for this somewhat exacting profession. He studied medicine wih his father until he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Keokuk, Iowa., from which he was graduated with an excellent record in 1877; he took post-graduate work in the Chicago Polyclinic Institute in 1897. He first began to practice in Barnard in 1877 and remained there nineteen years, duing which time he enjoyed a very liberal practice. Locating in Maryville, he continued here in active practice for a period of twenty-three years with the exception of several months spent in California.

Dr. Allen held the office of city physician of Maryville and had been a member of the school boards at Barnard and Maryville. He was also surgeon for the Wabash railroad.

He was married on Oct. 24, 1878, to Sallie McFarland of Barnard. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. M. L. Beattie of this city. A Son Dr. Fay Allen died a few years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church, and fraternally was a Royal Arch Mason and an Odd Fellow.

CHANGE TIME NEXT SUNDAY.

At 2 o'Clock in the Morning the Clock Must Gain One Hour.

Beginning next Sunday Greenwich will step aside and the city gardeners, golfers, tennis players and business men will lengthen their recreation time under Old Sol's free light.

At 2 o'clock in the morning all timepieces must be turned ahead one hour. The federal law doesn't specify that one must be up at that hour to bring his watch or clock into legality, but it does say the time must change, Greenwich, sun, noon and tide to the contrary notwithstanding.

One may begin on the new time at any hour, as long as he is right with Washington at 2 next Sunday morning. It is a perfectly legal, if not a wise procedure.

Don't forget, at 2 o'clock next Sunday morning it is, "All aboard, change clocks for summer time."

Red Cross News From Nodaway Auxiliaries

(Note:—Please report or send all news of Red Cross Activities to the editor of this column)

The peoples of the Balkan countries are in even greater need than the people of France and Belgium, for the former have been within reach of the governments, the Red Cross and other relief organizations throughout the war; but the latter have been exiles for two years or more, at the beginning of which they had but the clothes on their backs when driven from home. The rough and perilous life they have been compelled to live soon reduced these to rags, and there have been no additions, except from pieces of carpet, burlap and blankets held together as best the owner could. They have had no shoes since the original pair fell to pieces. There is no leather. They have had no bedding since the last article of this was used as makeshift clothing. Thus miserably clad they have been compelled to endure the utmost severities of climate, seasons, travel and brutality of their conquerors.

Through every possible medium the plight of these people will be brought home to the American people, so that the clothing collection campaign may result in as widely spread and sufficient relief as the circumstances demand. Americans will not be asked to make sacrifices, for this is unnecessary. Only the cast-off, unused or surplus clothing is desired, shoes of every size, bedding, pieces of cloth, canton flannel, underclothes, etc. Really, every article of clothing of a worth producing, substantial kind will be of the greatest use. These things represent but little value to Americans and unusually can well be spared. They will be of the utmost value to people who are suffering and will be appreciated more than the giver can imagine.

This campaign will take place when Americans are changing from heavy to lighter wearing apparel. Much of the heavy clothing will not be again worn. Much, ordinarily, will be put away and forgotten, become damaged or lost.

Thousands of suits, coats, dresses, cloaks, soft hats, stockings, and millions of articles that represent American's surplus supply of clothing should be donated to these people who are badly in need of even the barest essentials of comfort.

This campaign differs widely from the clothing collection last year. Then it was for the benefit of only the Belgians and the American Red Cross handled only the collection. Now all of the destitute people of all of the countries associated in the war with the United States are to be helped, and the American Red Cross undertakes not merely the collection but the packing, delivery to trains and to the ships of the European Relief Administration and supervises the actual distribution to the needy individuals in Europe.

The quantity of material asked now is double the amount asked last year. But the work of administration in this relief is complicated and extraordinarily extensive. There is no comparison of the two campaigns. The work now to be done is of such magnitude that the assistance of every available person is needed to make the campaign the success called for by the range of need. A great deal of expense and appropriation of transportation space and help that was wasted in the clothing campaign last year must be saved in this campaign. Many useless and frivilous articles were donated that required time in packing, space in bales and trains only to be thrown out at the central collection points, thus wasting funds and labor of employees of the Red Cross. People who are suffering through lack of clothing that can be put in condition for wear will be of great use. It is not necessary that they be in perfect condition for any amount of assistance can be obtained for repairing and altering garments.

Since the end of hostilities the roads and passes of the countries have been crowded with thousands of refugees finding their way back to their abandoned villages and towns. They find their homes burned or blown apart by the shell fire and the entire country devastated. There is no shelter except such as they can construct from the debris, and little of this is left after the firset arrivals. Around the fires in the open air families are again taking up the first elements of social, municipal and national life, but with the satisfaction that the enemy will not return and the promise of an undisturbed liberty. The severity of weather, the scarcity of food and clothing and the dangers to their health, the deaths of members of the family and others of their countrymen have become such frequent happenings that they have been accepted as a part of the general misfortune, which only the hardiest and most determined could endure, and have survived.

The extent and immensity of the work to be done may be bewildering, but it must be done. The American Red Cross is the only organization with the facilities to do it. This is initself is a great distinction, but when the work is finally done; when thousands of people will have owed their lives to the relief from America; when a prompt and effective rehabitation of their country has been accomplished because of the help given by America, the utmost appreciation and satisfaction will be mutually felt by them and the Americans—they, because of the benefits received, and, we, because of the opportunity to do it.

Attention.

The clothing campaign is next week beginning Monday. If you have any clothing, leave your call at the Red Cross rooms and some one will call for them. Call Hanamo 220.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Cal Pierce tells this one: "Returning from a trip to St. Louis recently the Pullman porter handed me one black shoe and one that was tan colored. I held them up to him and called his attention to the fact. He scratched his wooly head in bewilderment and then said: "Well, don't dat beat de debbil. Dat's de second time dis mawin' dat dat mistake has happened."

She was a farmer's wife. They live near Maryville. She had just come in from the barn carrying two milk buckets full of milk. A visitor asked her if she wanted to vote. She vehemently replied: "No, I certainly do not. I say now, if there's one little thing that the men folks can do alone, for heaven's sake let 'em do it."

Observation: It is a waste of time to argue with a man who has the strength of mind to wear a celluloid collar or side whiskers.

"The courts are to be called on to define just what is meant by 'intoxicating liquor.' That ought not to be a hard matter. Intoxicating liquor is a substance most of us "hope for" but dare not admit it; it's what you take the night before (if you can get it) and wish you had failed to make connections with the morning after; up to a certain point it is "Oh, be joyful;" after that point is reached it is misery and mortification condensed in tabloid form; it is hell if taken standing over a bar with your foot on a brass rail and heaven if partaken of while kneeling at a bench surrounded with a lot of "congenial" fellows; it is—but what in Sam Hill's the use?

Some rules are much easier to obey than others. Frinstance, there's the rule forbidding the shooting of wild fowl from airplanes. The Presiding Elder expects to obey that rule "cheerfully."

The Scotchman with his bagpipe and bare legs is scorned by a woman whose modesty does not forbid her showing her wish bone and shoulder blades. Women are also curious animals.

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema

Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire.

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source.

The source of Eczema is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle to-day at any drugstore, and you will see results from the right treatment. Write for expert medical advice, which you can get without cost, by addressing Medical Director, 21 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

ADVERTISING MARYVILLE.

A Douglass, Ariz., Newspaper Prints A "News Item."

Maryville is getting some advertising in Arizona as the following dispatch from this city was printed in one of the papers at Douglas, Ariz., and was sent here to Mrs. R. B. Montgomery by her cousin, Mrs. McMillen, who lives in Douglas:

Maryville, Mo., March 15.—A certain well known man went to "lodge" one night recently. The four months old baby of the house had been crying much of nights. He needed a "rest."

Coming home a little the worse for the entertainment and dreading an interview with his wife, he slipped off his shoes before entering the house. Seeing the cradle, he sat down and began to rock it vigorously, thinking when his wife awoke she would see him caring for the baby and the scolding would not be given.

Hearing him crooning to himself his wife asked the reason. "I've been two hours trying to get the baby to sleep," he replied.

That's odd," replied his wife. "The baby's here in bed with me."

Miss Sheridan Wins School Honor.

Miss Grace Sheridan of this city, who is attending Platt's Business College in St. Joseph, has recently won the college championship in stenographic work. The two best in each of four departments of the school were selected for the final competition in which Miss Sheridan won.

Icelanders date the beginning of their year from "Yule," Dec. 22. They also reckon a person's age by the number of Yules he has seen.

SECRET OF LONG WEAR IN SHOES FOR BOYS

"Nothing could be more of a tax on soles than the hikes and games of the Boy Scouts, but for durability, comfort and protection in the rain I certainly recommend Neolin Soles. I have two pairs of shoes equipped with them." Scott C. [illegible], of Newton, Mass., who wrote this, speaks from experience.

Thousands and thousands of other active boys who have shoes with Neolin Soles vouch for their long wear. Parents who pay big shoe bills will be interested in this, for Neolin Soles cut those shoe bills down. Buy Neolin-soled shoes, not only for the boys, but for every member of the family. They come in many styles.

Have your worn shoes re-soled with Neolin Soles, too. All good repair shops have them. They are made scientifically by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heel.

What [illegible] use of Headache? [illegible]ackache?

BY DOCTOR CORNELL

Backache is perhaps the most common ailment from which women suffer. Rarely do you find a woman free from it. Sometimes the cause is obscure but Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., a high medical authority says the cause is very often a form of catarrh that settles in the delicate membranes of the feminine organs. When these organs are inflamed, the first symptom may be backache, or headache, dizziness, accompanied by bearing-down sensations, weakness, irregularity, painful periods, irritation, and a general run-down condition. Any woman in this condition is to be pitied, but pity does not cure. The trouble calls for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is a separate and distinct medicine for women. It is made of roots and herbs, put up without alcohol or opiate of any kind, for Dr. Pierce uses nothing injurious. In taking Favorite Prescription, it is reassuring to know that it goes straight to the cause of the trouble. There is but one way to overcome sickness, and that is to overcome the cause. That is precisely what Favorite Prescription is intended to do.

NO FAILU[illegible]

MADE STRONGER BY WAR

Declares Bolshevism Will Be Cured Only Through Christ's Teaching and Not by Food.

That all the talk about the church having failed in its mission and that it was no longer the great power in the world was vehemently denied by Bishop William A. Quayle of the Methodist church who spoke at the First M. E. Church last night on the subject, "My Church." A capacity house heard the Bishop discuss the biggest question that is interesting the people of the world, the power of the church of God.

Said Bishop Quayle, "we heard at the beginning of the war that the church had failed. People in their uneasiness and with their befogged minds were ready to accept it as a truth, but let us see who has failed. It is we who have failed. The church is still going on, greater and more powerful than ever.

"They told us that when the boys came home from the war they would not take to the things they formerly liked—there would have to be a new order of things, but I find that the boys are anxious to get back into citizens clothes, to do the things they liked to do before they went to war, to go to church and hear the preacher and the choir just liked they used to. The church is going on and ahead with a greater program for humanity's relief and salvation than ever before in the history of the world. It has not failed in a single thing.

"There are plenty who would like to see it fail. They are the people who are fearful of the time when they will be called to account. The people who are living in the church and supporting its work and living good lives will tell you the church has not failed.

"What has the Protestant church done? Here is the biggest thing in recent years—and it's history I'm telling. It has made this country to be without the saloon and has caused prohibition to be adopted throughout the land. I say the Protestant church did it. The labor unions and Mr. Gompers did not do it—they voted against it. The Roman Catholic church did not do it for they were opposed to it. Don't be afraid of the church failing. You may fail, but the church of God will never fail.

"We hear of the fearful menace of Bolshevism that is going to take the world and that bread is its cure. Don't you believe it. The carnival of murder of hellishness and terror that is spreading over Europe cannot be done away with by such means. The human stomach does not cause men to do such things. It is the mind and heart and these must be the point of attack. [illegible]ere is just one thing that will rid world of this curse and that is Protestant church of God. I am denying the beneficial effects of [illegible] food but the minds and hearts of these Bolsheviki must be turned to see the light as Christ has taught.

"The church is engaged in the most stupendous project it has ever undertaken and is girding the globe in its effort to make real the things it teaches and it is worthy of the support of men and women everywhere. To have a part in it is to have a part in making the world a real democracy in its fullest sense."

HUNDREDS AT KITE FLYING

Boy Scout Events Yesterday Provided Novel Form of Amusement—The Grown-Ups Outnumbered Boys.

The kite flying contest at the Normal field yesterday afternoon by the Boy Scouts and their boy friends drew several hundred youngsters and as many more grown folks. The former came with kites of all descriptions, from the old-fashioned newspaper and paste affair to box kites and airplane kites. The grown-ups came to see if kite flying was as much sport as it was when they were kids, and from the remarks overheard left no doubt that it was even more so, the older men staying until the last kite had been taken down and the prizes awarded. It was an afternoon of great sport despite the number of kite "casualties" from tangled lines when some enthusiastic younster dared to get his flier "out of sight."

The contests included events for home-made kites, the largest and the smallest kite, the most comical kite, box kites, star kites, etc. The distance contest brought out plenty of rivalry and much skill, as did also the altitude record event. Sending messages and parachute drops were interesting events, too.

The fun came in the athletic events when each contestant was required to fly his kite while taking part in the rolling races, one-legged roce, three-legged race, relay races and other events.

The following boys won prizes donated by the Kessler Hardware store: Townsend Godsey, Edwards, Laverne Robey, Eckart, Garten, Jas. Shearer, Carlos Yehle, Don Herndon, Sherman McLoud, Ferritor.

Judges were: G. H. Westfall, I. B. Williams and Dale Peery of St. Joseph. The contest was planned and carried out by Assistant Scoutmaster Frank Green of Troop I.

Jefferson City, March 24.—The long list of first rank honors taken by Missouri from the other forty-seven states of the union, as based on the state-federal statistics for 1918, has been compiled by Jewell Mayes, secretary of of the state board of agriculture, together with the other rankings to which the state is entitlted by reason of her marvelous and diversified production. Mr. Mayes adds that "the standing of Missouri was not nearly so high in 1918 on our main crops as it was for 1917 and usual years because of the unprecedented hot winds that lapped over into Missouri from Kansas and Oklahoma," but the list will be found useful to speech-makers, real estate dealers and all who are entertaining visitors from other states given to boasting.

Missouri is second in 1918 and 1919 winter wheat acreage, number of mules, and acre yield of rice, and third in the number of hogs, and production of winter wheat and corn.

Other rankings are:

Fourth in total value of horses, tame hay acreage, acre yield of peanuts, and number of cattle other than milch cows.

Fifth in corn acreage, and the combined value of cattle and hogs, sheeps, horses and mules.

Sixth in population acre yield of flax seed, clover seed acreage, total value of swine, and number of horses.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE

The preliminary hearing of Dave Bledsoe, charged with placing a bomb in a bundle of fodder, the bomb exploding and injuring Grant Richards, his brother-in-law, is in progresss before Justice W. L. Johnson in the circuit court room this afternoon. Richards was the first witness examined and told of Mrs. Bledsoe coming to his home the day before the January term of court to ask him what could be done to "stop the thing." He said she told him she did not care for herself or her husband, but that it was on account of the children that she would like to get "the thing" stopped.

Constable Bert Henderson told of a visit to the Bledsoe home in company with Prosecutor McCaffrey and Joe Thompson following the bomb explosion. The visit, he said Prosecutor McCaffrey told him, was for the purpose of hearing Bledsoe's confession. Arriving at the home he said that Bledsoe told the prosecutor that he was ready to plead guilty to the crime if he might be assured of not being prosecuted. This, Henderson said, McCaffrey told him he was unable to do and would promise nothing. Henderson said that Bledsoe did not admit he was guilty, but that he said he would plead guilty to escape being prosecuted. A number of other witnesses are being examined and the preliminary trial may not be concluded until late this afternoon.

Prosecutor McCaffrey is being assisted by W. A. Blagg and G. R. Ellison. Bledsoe is being represented by Cook & Cummins.

Dr. Austin Beech Allen, a prominent physician of Nodaway county, died at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Allen home, 227 West First street. Dr. Allen's death was not unexpected, as he had been in a precarious state since Friday night when he took a sudden relapse from a slight illness which had kept him at home for a couple of days previous to that. His sickness and death was due to an organic heart trouble which caused him to give up his medical practice two years ago and spend a winter in California. This benefitted him considerably and he resumed his practice last year.

No arrangements are yet made for the funeral.

Dr. Allen was born February 12, 1850, in Warren county, Ill. He studied medicine wih his father until he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Keokuk, Iowa., from which he was graduated with an excellent record in 1877; he took post-graduate work in the Chicago Polyclinic Institute in 1897. He first began to practice in Barnard in 1877 and remained there nineteen years, duing which time he enjoyed a very liberal practice. Locating in Maryville, he continued here in active practice for a period of twenty-three years with the exception of several months spent in California.

Dr. Allen held the office of city physician of Maryville and had been a member of the school boards at Barnard and Maryville. He was also surgeon for the Wabash railroad.

He was married on Oct. 24, 1878, to Sallie McFarland of Barnard. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. M. L. Beattie of this city. A Son Dr. Fay Allen died a few years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church, and fraternally was a Royal Arch Mason and an Odd Fellow.

They are requested to rally with the Moscow government and constitute a soviet republic, and to resist, arms in hand, the "imperialist conquerors."

The proclamation says the government will organize an army which will enforce the proletariat's dictates against Hungarian landowners and capitalists, the Roumanian aristocracy and the Czech bourgeois.

Red Cross News From Nodaway Auxiliaries

(Note:—Please report or send all news of Red Cross Activities to the editor of this column)

The peoples of the Balkan countries are in even greater need than the people of France and Belgium, for the former have been within reach of the governments, the Red Cross and other relief organizations throughout the war; but the latter have been exiles for two years or more, at the beginning of which they had but the clothes on their backs when driven from home. The rough and perilous life they have been compelled to live soon reduced these to rags, and there have been no additions, except from pieces of carpet, burlap and blankets held together as best the owner could. They have had no shoes since the original pair fell to pieces. There is no leather. They have had no bedding since the last article of this was used as makeshift clothing. Thus miserably clad they have been compelled to endure the utmost severities of climate, seasons, travel and brutality of their conquerors.

Through every possible medium the plight of these people will be brought home to the American people, so that the clothing collection campaign may result in as widely spread and sufficient relief as the circumstances demand. Americans will not be asked to make sacrifices, for this is unnecessary. Only the cast-off, unused or surplus clothing is desired, shoes of every size, bedding, pieces of cloth, canton flannel, underclothes, etc. Really, every article of clothing of a worth producing, substantial kind will be of the greatest use. These things represent but little value to Americans and unusually can well be spared. They will be of the utmost value to people who are suffering and will be appreciated more than the giver can imagine.

This campaign will take place when Americans are changing from heavy to lighter wearing apparel. Much of the heavy clothing will not be again worn. Much, ordinarily, will be put away and forgotten, become damaged or lost.

Thousands of suits, coats, dresses, cloaks, soft hats, stockings, and millions of articles that represent American's surplus supply of clothing should be donated to these people who are badly in need of even the barest essentials of comfort.

This campaign differs widely from the clothing collection last year. Then it was for the benefit of only the Belgians and the American Red Cross handled only the collection. Now all of the destitute people of all of the countries associated in the war with the United States are to be helped, and the American Red Cross undertakes not merely the collection but the packing, delivery to trains and to the ships of the European Relief Administration and supervises the actual distribution to the needy individuals in Europe.

The quantity of material asked now is double the amount asked last year. But the work of administration in this relief is complicated and extraordinarily extensive. There is no comparison of the two campaigns. The work now to be done is of such magnitude that the assistance of every available person is needed to make the campaign the success called for by the range of need. A great deal of expense and appropriation of transportation space and help that was wasted in the clothing campaign last year must be saved in this campaign. Many useless and frivilous articles were donated that required time in packing, space in bales and trains only to be thrown out at the central collection points, thus wasting funds and labor of employees of the Red Cross. People who are suffering through lack of clothing that can be put in condition for wear will be of great use. It is not necessary that they be in perfect condition for any amount of assistance can be obtained for repairing and altering garments.

Since the end of hostilities the roads and passes of the countries have been crowded with thousands of refugees finding their way back to their abandoned villages and towns. They find their homes burned or blown apart by the shell fire and the entire country devastated. There is no shelter except such as they can construct from the debris, and little of this is left after the firset arrivals. Around the fires in the open air families are again taking up the first elements of social, municipal and national life, but with the satisfaction that the enemy will not return and the promise of an undisturbed liberty. The severity of weather, the scarcity of food and clothing and the dangers to their health, the deaths of members of the family and others of their countrymen have become such frequent happenings that they have been accepted as a part of the general misfortune, which only the hardiest and most determined could endure, and have survived.

The extent and immensity of the work to be done may be bewildering, but it must be done. The American Red Cross is the only organization with the facilities to do it. This is initself is a great distinction, but when the work is finally done; when thousands of people will have owed their lives to the relief from America; when a prompt and effective rehabitation of their country has been accomplished because of the help given by America, the utmost appreciation and satisfaction will be mutually felt by them and the Americans—they, because of the benefits received, and, we, because of the opportunity to do it.

Attention.

The clothing campaign is next week beginning Monday. If you have any clothing, leave your call at the Red Cross rooms and some one will call for them. Call Hanamo 220.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. F. O. Forrester, a trained nurse residing at the Grand Central Hotel, Denver, Colo., is but one of this high profession who have testified, to the merits of Tanlac. Mrs. Forrester recently aid:

"I had been in miserable health seven years, suffering from indigestion. Everything I ate would sour and even cold water would cause me much distress. Often at night I would wake up feeling like I was smothering to death and would have to get up out of bed and stand on my feet awhile to get my breath.

"One of my friends who knew of my awful condition and who had been benefitted by Tanlac advised me to try it. I did so and my relief has been remarkable. Really I feel like I have been made over again. I have already gained nine pounds in weight and intend to keep on taking Tanlac as long as it does me as much good as it is now."

Cal Pierce tells this one: "Returning from a trip to St. Louis recently the Pullman porter handed me one black shoe and one that was tan colored. She was a farmer's wife. They live near Maryville. She had just come in from the barn carrying two milk buckets full of milk. A visitor asked her if she wanted to vote. She vehemently replied: "No, I certainly do not. I say now, if there's one little thing that the men folks can do alone, for heaven's sake let 'em do it."

Observation: It is a waste of time to argue with a man who has the strength of mind to wear a celluloid collar or side whiskers.

"The courts are to be called on to define just what is meant by 'intoxicating liquor.' That ought not to be a hard matter. Intoxicating liquor is a substance most of us "hope for" but dare not admit it; it's what you take the night before (if you can get it) and wish you had failed to make connections with the morning after; up to a certain point it is "Oh, be joyful;" after that point is reached it is misery and mortification condensed in tabloid form; it is hell if taken standing over a bar with your foot on a brass rail and heaven if partaken of while kneeling at a bench surrounded with a lot of "congenial" fellows; it is—but what in Sam Hill's the use?

Some rules are much easier to obey than others. Frinstance, there's the rule forbidding the shooting of wild fowl from airplanes. The Presiding Elder expects to obey that rule "cheerfully."

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema

Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire.

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source.

The source of Eczema is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle to-day at any drugstore, and you will see results from the right treatment. Write for expert medical advice, which you can get without cost, by addressing Medical Director, 21 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

ADVERTISING MARYVILLE.

A Douglass, Ariz., Newspaper Prints A "News Item."

Maryville is getting some advertising in Arizona as the following dispatch from this city was printed in one of the papers at Douglas, Ariz., and was sent here to Mrs. R. B. Montgomery by her cousin, Mrs. McMillen, who lives in Douglas:

Maryville, Mo., March 15.—A certain well known man went to "lodge" one night recently. The four months old baby of the house had been crying much of nights. He needed a "rest."

Coming home a little the worse for the entertainment and dreading an interview with his wife, he slipped off his shoes before entering the house. Seeing the cradle, he sat down and began to rock it vigorously, thinking when his wife awoke she would see him caring for the baby and the scolding would not be given.

Hearing him crooning to himself his wife asked the reason. "I've been two hours trying to get the baby to sleep," he replied.

That's odd," replied his wife. "The baby's here in bed with me."

SECRET OF LONG WEAR IN SHOES FOR BOYS

"Nothing could be more of a tax on soles than the likes and games of the Boy Scouts, but for durability, comfort and protection in the rain I certainly recommend Neolin Soles. I have two pairs of shoes equipped with them." Scott C. [illegible], Newton, Mass., who wrote this, speaks from experience.

Thousands and thousands of other active boys who have shoes with Neolin Soles vouch for their long wear. Parents who pay big shoe bills will be interested in this, for Neolin Soles cut those bills down. Buy Neolin-soled shoes, not only for the boys, but for every member of the family. They come in many styles.

Have your worn shoes re-soled with Neolin soles, too. All good repair shops have them. They are made scientifically by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heel.

What Is Cause of Headache? Backache?

BY DOCTOR CORNELL

Backache is perhaps the most common ailment from which women suffer. Rarely do you find a woman free from it. Sometimes the cause is obscure but Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., a high medical authority says the cause is very often a form of catarrh that settles in the delicate membranes of the feminine organs. When these organs are inflamed, the first symptom may be backache, or headache, dizziness, accompanied by bearing-down sensations, weakness, irregularity, painful periods, irritation, and a general run-down condition. Any woman in this condition is to be pitied, but pity does not cure. The trouble calls for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is a separate and distinct medicine for women. It is made of roots and herbs, put up without alcohol or opiate of any kind, for Dr. Pierce uses nothing injurious. In taking Favorite Prescription, it is reassuring to know that it goes straight to the cause of the trouble. There is but one way to overcome sickness, and that is to overcome the cause. That is precisely what Favorite Prescription is intended to do.
